

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 23, 2007
CONTACT: Steven M. Opsanic
PH: 814-873-5069

Erie Film Community Hosts Thanksgiving Food Drive

The Erie Area Film Community Presents
The First Annual "Films For Food" to benefit the Erie Food Bank.

November 9th & 10th at the Historical Roadhouse Theater. Beginning at 7:30 p.m. on Friday thru 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, 24 hours of Erie Area films will be screening continuously.

Admission to the theater is a simple cash or food donation to the Erie Food Bank. 100% of the proceeds will benefit the food bank.

Films already scheduled to screen:

"Chasing Darkness" by Jason Hull
"Virgin Pockets" by Paul Gorman
"Hunting Camp" by John Lyons
"Edinboro Meets The Spider" by Monster Mark
"Humans Lib" by AJ & Nick Detisch
"There You Were" by Nikki Hassinger
"Aspiring Psychopath" by Ryan Cavalline
and "Bad Friend" by Dusty Austin

Killer Wolf Films' "Fist of The Vampire" which won "Best Horror Feature" at the 2007 Great Lakes Film Festival.

Many more films to be added to the schedule.

Brought to you by The Erie Area Film Makers

With help from The Roadhouse Theater and The Great Lakes Film Association

With Special Thanks to SnowDog Studio, GMD Films, Lyons Den Productions, 4th Floor Pictures and all of the Film Makers in the Erie Area.

If you'd like more information on the Films For Food event, please contact Paul Gorman directly at gmdfilms@verizon.net